This action has been filed by the Plaintiff, pro se, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Plaintiff, who at the time this action was filed, was a detainee at the Charleston County Detention Center, alleges violations of his constitutional rights.

The Defendants Al Cannon, Lucas, Ashley Dell, and James Atchinson, filed a motion for summary judgment on October 23, 2009, pursuant to Rule 12, Fed. R. Civ. P., and the Defendant Theo Jacobs filed a motion to dismiss or in the alternative for summary judgment on December 9, 2009, pursuant to Rule 12(b), Fed.R.Civ.P. As the Plaintiff is proceeding pro se, orders pursuant to Roseboro v. Garrison, 528 F.2d 309 (4th Cir. 1975) were entered by the Court on October 26, 2009 and December 10, 2009, advising Plaintiff of the importance of a dispositive motion and of the need for him to file an adequate response. Plaintiff was specifically advised that if he failed to respond adequately, the Defendants' motions may be granted. Plaintiff's copy of the order issued December

The undersigned notes that when Plaintiff filed this action, he was specifically instructed as follows:

You are ordered to always keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing...if your address changes for any reason, so as to assure that orders or other matters that specify deadlines for you to meet will be received by you. If as a result of your failure to comply with this order, you fail to file something you are required to file within a deadline set by a District Judge or a Magistrate Judge, your case may be dismissed for violating this order. Therefore, if you have a change of address before this case has ended, you must comply with this order by immediately advising the Clerk of Court in writing of such change of address....Your failure to do so will not be excused by the Court. (emphasis added)

See Order filed June 18, 2009.

Plaintiff has failed to comply with this order, and as a result neither the Court nor the Defendants have any means of contacting him concerning his case.

Based on the foregoing, and the previous instructions and specific warning given to the Plaintiff in the Court's order of June 18, 2009, it is recommended that this action be dismissed, with prejudice, in accordance with Rule 41(b), Fed.R.Civ.P. The Clerk is directed to send this Report and Recommendation to Plaintiff at his last known address.

If the Plaintiff notifies the Court within the time set forth for filing objections to this Report and Recommendation that he wishes to continue with this case and provides a current address, the Clerk is directed to vacate this Report and Recommendation and return this file to the undersigned for further handling. If, however, no objections are filed, the Clerk shall
